

PART I

Narrative Description of Your Activities using an attachment, describe your past, present, and future planned activities in a narrative...

James Cerebral Palsy Foundation (the "Applicant") was formed to help improve the quality of life of individuals with disabilities both children, adults and their families and friends by providing resources through the organization's website <https://jamescpfoundation.org> and educational speaking engagements. The Applicant will focus its efforts on the following education, empowerment, providing charitable financial help to organizations that provide for the health and well-being of persons with disabilities.

The areas of health will include, but are not limited to:

- Mental
- Emotional,
- Physical
- Spiritual

The Applicant's programs will be specifically designed to engage communities in understanding the challenges and responding to individuals with disabilities with more positive interactions. The Applicant will invest in the potential of persons with disabilities by actively involving the community in the development of better community relationships with those with special needs. The Applicant will also partner with local businesses and indigenous churches and other community organizations to accomplish its objectives

PART II

Your Members and Other individuals and Organizations That Receive Benefits from you in carrying out your exempt activities/purposes, do you provide goods, services, or funds to individuals? NO If "Yes," describe each program that provides goods, services, or funds to individuals.

Primary Activities/Purposes

The Applicant believes that education is one of the keys to breaking the cycle of discrimination towards people with disabilities and making a cultural shift to a more compassionate culture towards those with disabilities. The Applicant will seek to empower children and adults with or without a disability by providing more education.

The Applicant will also focus on educating persons with disabilities on how to advocate for themselves by providing them with the resources and training they need to achieve their goal of being their own advocate. It's hoped that through the Applicants efforts that we may become a more peaceful, civilized, compassionate, and understanding society.

The Applicant will help its community to have a better understanding by providing education to grow leaders in a more positive and productive civilization. It's expected that the assistance will lead to long-term behavioral changes, thereby, reduce discrimination and create a more understanding and knowledgeable society about living life with a disability.

Projects will include, but are not limited to:

- Providing more in-depth disability education in educational institutions.
- Providing educational materials at workshops, micro-business events, public speaking engagements.

PART III

Your Specific Activities

- Camping Trips for organizations that serve people with disabilities as to provide self-advocacy training.
(Staff and Clients)
- Speaking Engagements
- Growing positive communications between persons with disabilities and the general public
- Helping persons with disabilities understand the changes in disability rights at the State and Federal levels

4a. Do you or will you undertake fundraising? YES

The Application uses volunteers to organize fundraising events two times each year. At these events, funds are solicited from the attendees after highlighting the organization's vision, goals, needs and achievements.

PART IV

James Cerebral Palsy Foundation (the "Applicant") will not expressly empower, engage, or otherwise than as an insubstantial part activity, The organization's activities will only engage to further its exempt purposes.

PART V

Upon dissolution James Cerebral Palsy Foundation (the "Applicant") will only use its remaining assets to be used exclusively for section 501(c)(3) exempt purposes. 501(c)(3) exempt purposes may include, but is not limited to donating its assets to other 501(c)(3) exempt organizations that have the same or similar goals as James Cerebral Palsy Foundation (the "Applicant")

PART VI

The Applicants and its board of directors believes in honesty and transparency and reserves the right to alter these bylaws at their discretion. The revised bylaws will go into effect 30 days after board approval.

1a. The board reserves the right to alter any new changes within the 30-day period, and the new changes will take effect on the original 30-day period.

1b. The board will permit public input which could include but is not limited to.

- General Public
- Volunteer and Paid

2a. The organization will provide all volunteer and paid employees if any with board approved or denied changes and a detailed description of why the changes were or were not approved, and how the changes will impact the organization.

2b. The detailed description will be provided within a 2-week period of the approved or denied changes to all employees. The board will make available the detailed description to anyone in the public by adding the detailed description on its website and social media pages.

2c. The public can request a paper copy of the detailed description if they would like one. There will be a $5.00 fee for anyone who would like a burned copy of the boards detailed description on a CD or flash drive. In addition anyone volunteers and/or the general public can request a copy be emailed via a attachment and/or Dropbox link.